

Everything in building material
"The Big Lumber Yard"
L. D. GARRISON
LUMBER CO.

ESTABLISHED 1884

TEXTILE MILL WORKERS ASK EIGHT HOURS

DEMAND FOR UNIVERSAL SHORT
DAY IN NEW ENGLAND MILLS INCLUDES HUNDRED AND
TWENTY THOUSAND PERSONS
IN THAT SECTION ALONE.

FIX UPON NEXT MONDAY FOR INAUGURATION

Mill Owners Have Refused to Make Concessions In Working Day—Operatives Demanded Same Pay for Short Day They Have Received For Nine Hours.

By The Associated Press.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 27.—The movement among the textile workers for the inauguration of a universal eight-hour day, beginning next Monday, was extended today to comprise approximately one-half the mill industry in New England.

Workers in Fall River, the textile centers of Rhode Island and of the Blackstone Valley in Massachusetts, Wales and Biddeford and Saco, Maine, joined in the demand previously made by operatives at Lawrence, Lowell and Manchester, N. H. The mills in these cities employ an aggregate of upwards of 120,000 persons.

An announcement was made that other centers of the mill industry would be asked to join the movement at meetings to be held during the week.

The success of the movement as inaugurated by the United Textile Workers of America would mean, according to a statement in President John Quinn of Fall River, an eight-hour day for textile plants in all parts of the country. Its adoption in the southern states would reduce the working time from fifty-eight hours to forty hours and in most of the midwestern states from fifty-four hours.

President Quinn today said the employees wanted the same pay for forty-eight hours they had received for the longer time.

All owners in some instances have made answer to the demands, but whatever there has been a reply, it had been a refusal. W. French Shaw, president of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, announced a few days ago that representatives of that organization, of the National

(Continued on Page Two.)

CARRANZA ASKS POLITICS BE POSTPONED IN MEXICO UNTIL END OF THIS YEAR

DECLARAS HE WILL NOT SEEK RE-ELECTION AND SAYS PRO-LONGED POLITICAL CAMPAIGN WILL BE VERY DETERMINANT TO MEXICAN INTERESTS.

By The Associated Press.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 27.—President Vonzares Carranza of Mexico has issued manifesto to the people of Mexico asking them to postpone his political career in connection with the plotting of his successor until the end of 1919 at least, in some document he says he will not seek re-election, which the constitution of Mexico forbids.

The manifesto was made public here today by Lazaro Cárdenas, commandant of the revolution, and industrial minister of the revolution, and industrial minister of labor, Mexico.

Carranza, desiring long political vacation, would cause political complications.
He believed that the effectiveness of naval warfare and naval action was two of the democratic principles to be preserved and respected by the Mexican people of the future. Carranza's term ends in 1921.

THE WEATHER.

Corpus Christi: Probably fair; light to moderate west to north winds.

Louisiana: Tuesday and Wednesday, partly cloudy; little change in temperature.

East Texas: Tuesday, fair; except northeast on west coast; pale Wednesday; moderate temperature.

West Texas: Tuesday and Wednesday, fair; little change in temperature.

IN ADVANCE.

I want to see the world so good;
So firmly fixed on brotherhood,
That is the human family.
We'll have no need for charity—But still that bleed millennium With all its joys has truly come, I'll work upon the ancient plan.
To aid the fallen, helpless man,
And charitably ease his fear.

As though that time was really here—
John Kendrick Bangs.

Pay your poll tax, January 31 is your last chance. Remember that if you live in Corpus Christi you must secure your city poll tax, costing $1, from the city collector, and your county tax, costing $1.75, from the county collector.
Better be safe than sorry!

(Continued on Page Two.)

Corpus Christi Caller

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS, TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1919

HAVE YOUR TITLE
GUARANTEED
—By—
Guaranty Title Company
621 Mesquite St. Phone 25

VOLUME 20. NUMBER 263

CHARGES AGAINST RANGERS ARE GROSS EXAGGERATIONS SAYS BROWNSVILLE'S MAYOR

MEXICAN BORDER CITIZENS ARE TELEGRAPHING TO AUSTIN ASK-ING PERMISSION TO BE HEARD ON CANALES BILL TO REORG-ANIZE TEXAS RANGER FORCE—ADJUTANT GENERAL ASKS FOR INVESTIGATION BECAUSE OF CHARGES.

Anti-Lynching Bill Is Offered

By The Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 27.—The bill to reorganize the Texas State ranger force and place rangers under control which they could be sued by persons with whom they are alleged to have exceeded their authority in restraining, was referred back to the House committee on military affairs upon motion of the author, Representative J. T. Canales, late today. A bill to abolish the ranger force is pending in the Senate.

The Canales bill was amended by the committee to provide that upon receipt of defendant, suit upon his bond should be commenced in Travis County.

One of the main provisions of the amendment was that rangers could not get habeas corpus when sued in border counties.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.

The bill was introduced in House
and was referred to the committee on
privileges and immunities.

During the debate on the bill, Representative Harry Miller of Dallas, read
a telegram which said: "Conditions
are terrible along the border. Citizens were
on their way to Austin and that they
were held up on the hill postponed until
they could be heard." A telegram
from the mayor of Brownsville, Representative Newell Williams, was read by Representative Newell Williams.